

Versatile new formats

As pioneers in producing best-in-class plant-based meat alternatives under the Plenti® brand since 2009, we're thrilled to present to you four exciting new formats! These innovations promise an expanded range of textures and flavours, mimicking meat with unrivaled authenticity. Allowing us to offer you wider solutions in a market where customers are looking for new, high quality products at price parity with meat.

Why settle for the ordinary when we can create the extraordinary? At Ojah, we thrive on pushing the limits, inventing winning plant-based solutions that exceed consumers' expectations and spark imagination.
